

THE SEVENTH SEAL

I'm built in pain, forged into flames
I'm here to burn it all down
Formed from ash and coal, born without soul
Here to shake your holy ground

Hear the cries of martyrs, sound the angel's horn
Await your final judgement, your fate will soon be sworn

War and tribulation
Open the Seven Seals

Oncoming cataclysm opens an endless pit
Beware you all transgressors are now cast into it
Bringer of swarms, mad locust storms
Devoured by hungered disease
Rivers of blood, oceans now flood
Upon the planet besieged

A sea of fire
The sound of woe
Smoke from the pyre
Plagues the brimstone

A great stampede to crush the bones of all the fallen
The skies will open up in mead
And when the chosen then become one of the risen
Only then their souls shall now be freed

THE GUARDIAN

I'll never have to wonder if you ever cared
Even when there's no one, a part of you is there
I'm never lonely and this I still believe
I'm not the only one here, I hope you never leave
If I'm feeling lost, I look to you as my guide

I'll never be forsaken, you're always by my side
Whenever I'm forsaken, always be there by my side

I know you're out there because I can feel your near
Like a shadow in the distance, you're somewhere
Awaiting always to save me from myself
If I close my eyes, I see you waiting there to help

Someone watch over me, someone maybe you
Someone I never see, but still I reach out to
Someone watch over me, someone maybe you
Someone I never see, but still I reach out to Someone, is it you

TIMELASH

Fight 'til the death
Until the end of times
Sacrifice body
Soul, heart, & our mind
This cannot end 'til we cut off the head

Love versus love
We all live in sin
Love versus love
In a war no one wins

Bare your teeth & get out your claws
In this battlefield there are no laws
Liars, cheaters, born to break rules
We're all losers in this game of fools

Broken & beaten, damaged & destroyed
All this destruction we can't seem to avoid
Never a moment of peace & hope is gone
There's no resolution as the conflict rages on

BLIND

I am emptied & spilled here at your feet
All I know is loss, no secrets left to keep Lock myself away where no light can get in
When everything comes to an end, there's no where to begin

How far can one fall
How dark is the longest day
How low can one crawl
How many prayers can I pray when there's nothing left to say

My eyes are now blind
To anything that's pure & good, I resist it & I hide
My eyes are now blind
Everything has disappeared, most of me has died

HAUNTED FOREVER

All I ever wanted was some peace for you
So tied up in the chaos no matter what you do
I can see that darkness follows you wherever you are
It's so clear to me, I bear the similar scar

It never leaves
Always haunting us, forever
Won't set you free

Still I hope for a chance life comes around
To stand for a moment on some hallowed ground
Standing on hallowed ground

When I look ahead to see that nothing's here
I take some time to face the thing that I worst fear

SPIRAL INFINITE

In four winds & seven seas
What seems like an eternity
Past fermentant supernal skies
Where only sun & moon divide

A spiral infinity
Time & space go on
If this be our destiny
No span of breath too long

I'll wait here for you
'Til the sands of time run through
I'll wait here for you
'Til the end of times is through

Forever & ever onward & gone
Forever & ever into a new dawn

A spiral infinity
Time & space go on
If this be our destiny
No span of breath too long

LOST MY MIND

Splinters of lucidity
Cluttered by confusion
On the verge of insanity
Hopeful disillusion

But I'm fine, lost my mind
It happens all of the time
See the signs, still I'm blind
So what if it happens just one more time

I feel it go, slipping through my fingers
Take all that I know, a small bit of prudence lingers
